

Get creatively charged this summer with D-LIT, a smartphone summer camp for youth ages 11-14 from the City of Poughkeepsie! In D-LIT, youth will learn to use smartphones for artistic creation, music production, civic engagement, journalism, exploring virtual and augmented reality, and more. The camp will take place on the Vassar College campus (with lunch provided) and be taught by The Art Effect staff, Vassar students, and Poughkeepsie High School students. Every day will include some physical activity, exploration of the campus, and group bonding activities. The camp will also include local field trips.

D-LIT is Monday through Friday for two weeks, beginning Monday July 16th and ending Friday July 27th, from 10:00am – 4:00pm each day.

Are there any dates or weeks you are unavailable between July 16th and July 27th?

EVERY QUESTION must be answered. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

1) Do smartphones help or hurt society? Explain your thinking.

2) If you were a teacher in school and you saw a student on their smartphone during class, how would you respond and why?

3) Tell us about a time you've worked on a successful project that wasn't for school. What was it, how did you make it, and why do you consider it to be the "successful"? What motivated you to finish it?

4) Finally, tell us what you want to learn how to do with a smartphone.
